Linux Essentials with Bash

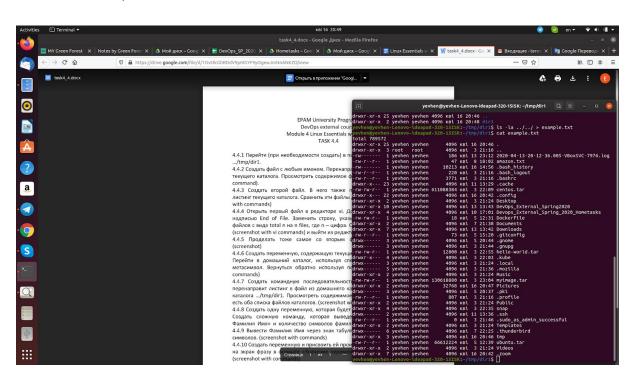

1. Create directory ../tmp/dir1 in home dir

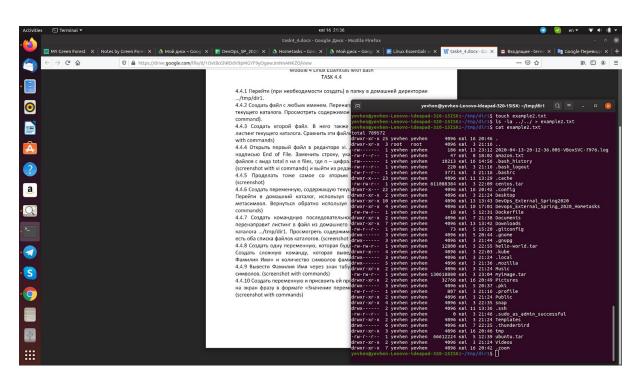

2. Create listing file with contents of home dir

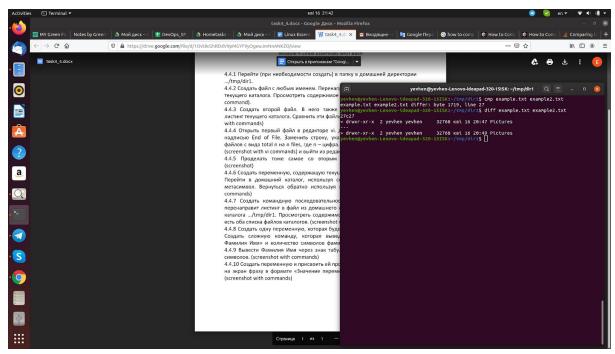

example code

Is -la ../../ > example.txt cat example.txt

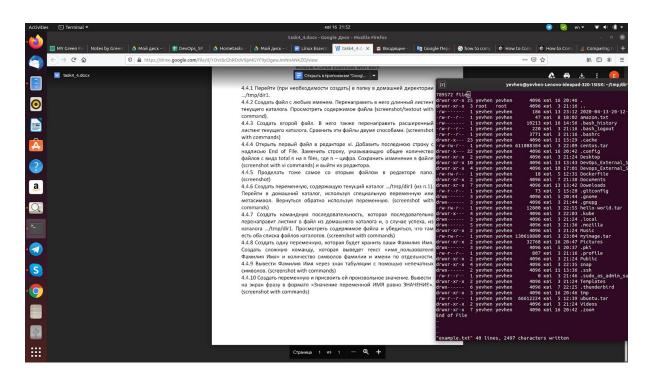

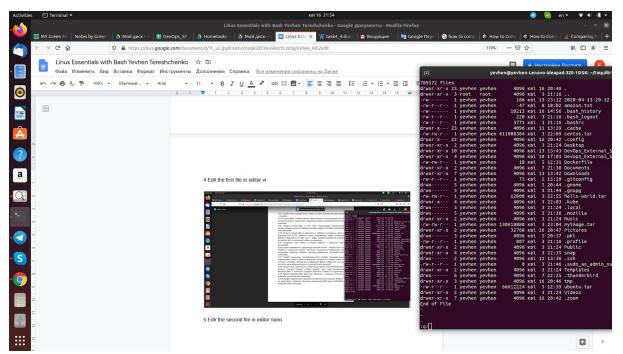

3. Create second file saved content into file.

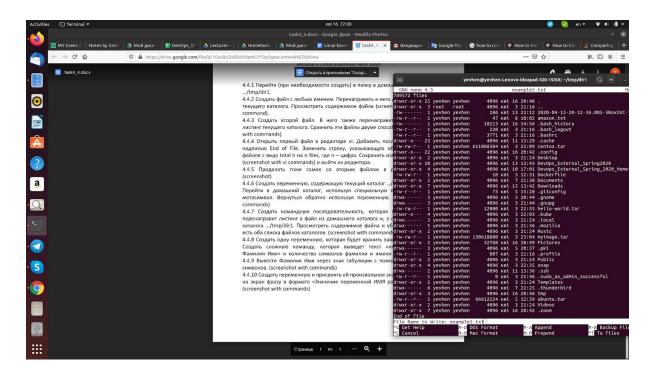

4. Edit the first file in editor vi

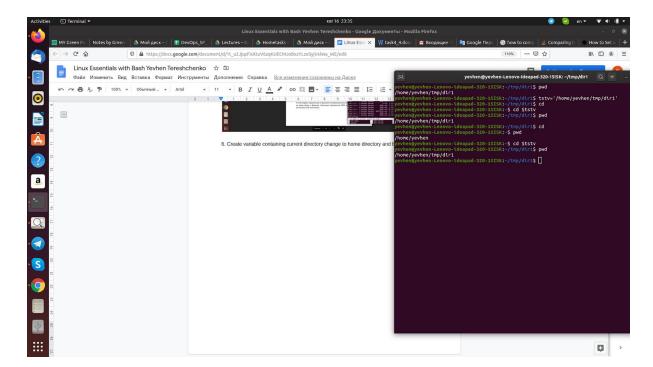

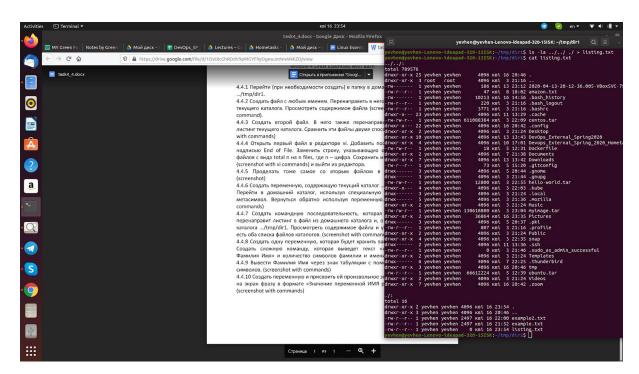

5. Edir the second file in editor nano

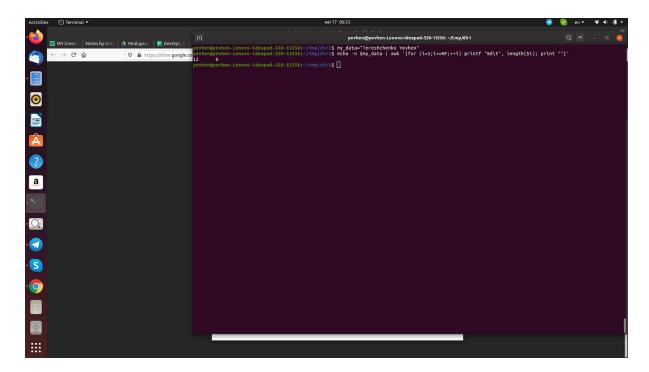

6. Create variable containing current directory change to home directory and back

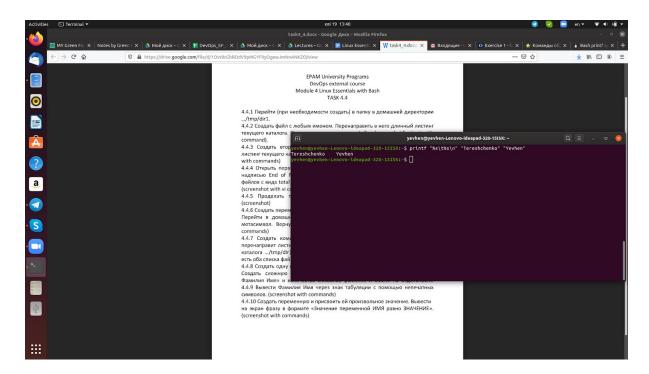

7. Create command sequence to listing directory home and ../tmp/dir1

8. Create variable and save into your surname and name. Counting letters in each words

9. Output surname and name with tab symbol

10. Create variable and assign it value.

